

This electrical contact is linked to turnout T1.

This contact should close, connecting terminal T1B to C, when turnout T1 is in the diverging (Reverse) position.

It should open when the turnout is in the Normal position.

